

New Dry-Hopped Recipe bursts with more citrus flavour!

Like most Canadians, CPA has that easy-going, laid back character that makes it the perfect companion as your go-to Session Ale.

And now CPA has been juiced up! Citra hops are added at a new dry-hopping stage and they join Aurora and Cascade hops in creating a delicious full-bodied flavour that's even more refreshing with no lingering afterbite.

It's what a Canadian ale should be.

CPA is the distinctive Canadian-style pale ale you crave when you need a break from traditional IPAs and APAs. Its clean finish sets your taste buds up for the next one.

Soft upfront hop bite blended with a citrus aroma and a smooth malty finish.

Never as harsh as traditional IPAs and APAs.

Full-flavoured without being too hoppy!

Value priced at only $2.95 for a tall boy.
